

Banks of The Ohio

American Folk

Key = D

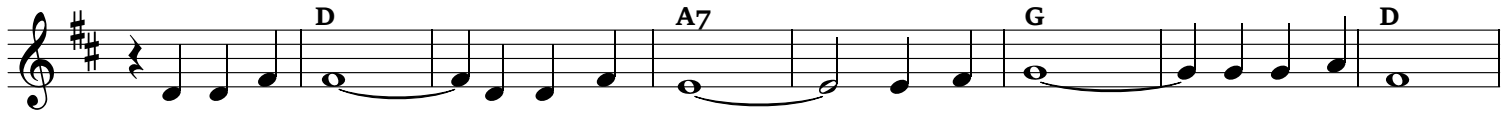

1. I asked my love to take a walk. To take a walk, just a lit- tle walk.
2. I held a knife a- gainst her breast. as in- to my arm she pressed.
3. I star- ted home 'tween 12 and one. I cried "My God, what have I - done?"

Down be- side, where the wa- ter flow. Down by the banks of the O- hi- o.
She cried "Oh Willie, don't mur- der me. I'm not pre- pared for e- ter- ni- ty"
Killed the only wo- man I - loved. Be- cause she would not - be my bride."

Refrain

And on- ly say that you'll be mine. In no o- ther's arms en- twin.

Down be- side where the wa- ter flow. Down by the banks of the O- hi- o.
